

Al Ain City Tour

A charming desert oasis that has been originally known as a stop on a caravan trail since time that long, that even the desert can't speak about. Today Al Ain is a garden city and the second largest in the emirate of Abu Dhabi. Having a history dating back to the 4th millennium BC. Al Ain is one of the agricultural centers of the Emirates and also a university city and the birthplace of the first President of the U.A.E.

The oasis (Jimi and Hili) provide a shaded walk through the palms of the dateDubai.

plantation, giving each visitor a restful and pleasant experience. We will visit the Al Ain Palace Museum, the residence of the late ruler Sheikh Zayed Bin Sultan Al Nahyan. Interesting displays, including collection of family portraits offer an insight into the way the royal family lived and entertained its guest. We then stop at the Camel market before returning to Dubai.
